Principal Report- Given by Brian Rau

Hebron Fest- very big success

- Mulch Sale went well, will stagger the needs for help with sports teams next year
- Might invite NHS and SGA to help out next year
- More help in the afternoon would be better
- Make sure the schedule does not have empty slots

Fourth quarter upon us

- testing
- fine arts programs
- senior stuff
- May is busy
- Senior Class Night- May 14
- Community wards- May 16
- Last day for Seniors & Department Awards- May 23

Scholarship deadline- April 23 (so far 25 applications have been submitted)

Korean American- not present

Sue Zhang (Treasurer)-not present

Mary Pearce- Mulch Sale

- Sold 5500 bags (BEST sale ever and 1,000 more than last year!)
- black mulch was a huge success (1500- lighter, smaller bag)
- $12, 500 net/ profit
- $28, 000 gross
- Have potential to make about another $1,000 more if we sell the leftover (offered to the staff at $4 a bag) 200 brown, 50 black
- 100 student volunteers
- 21 drivers
- all delivered by noon
- Next year the mulch delivery day is March 28

PTACHC- Dan Phatak

Brent (the PTACHC president) specifically requested the delegates to tell the local PTSA presidents to attend the next meeting (May) if they can.... possibly because there could be more votes on more positions that must be rammed through because the bills/legislation suddenly gain traction in county council or state legislature etc.

Color Fest at Mount Hebron high school.

- food in the cafeteria;
- music concert;
- color fest was held in the grass fields.
- it was a great success.

Scholarships- Laura Munns

- Due April 23
- 88 seniors joined the PTA this year
- Contact the parents and have them come to the ceremony as a surprise, kids find out at ceremony
- Still need a staff member and a student services member to read over essays

Other Business (Laura Munns)

After-Prom

- Tickets on sale online now, in cafeteria April 24-26
- 53 After-Prom tickets sold so far, 9 bus tickets (46 spots total)
- YMCA waiver online for the rock wall waiver separate, finally online
- Leaving the After-Prom ticket price at $10, Prom tickets cost $85
- Three tickets donated to after prom from mulch sale

Glory Days

- ran for a month
- sponsored us at the bronze level
- $250
